Baseball Umpires Assignor's Information:

If you are currently assigning baseball umpires and wish to be listed in the S.M.U.A. directory: Please completely fill out this section of this form.

The association requires that you supply:

1. All names of leagues or teams that you assign.
2. Level of Baseball these teams play at.
3. Umpire fees paid to each umpire per game. 1 or 2 umpires per game.

Requirements for a listed umpire assignor:

1. All umpiring fees must be comparable to the umpire's fees of the S.M.U.A.
2. All assignments must use certified umpires in good standing with the association.
3. All assignments must be paid at the plate prior to the start of the game.
4. All umpires shall be given no less than 24 hours notice of any non-weather related cancelled game.
5. All umpires shall be given no less than 90 minutes notice on any weather related postponement.
6. Junior Umpires may be used, but their pay is the same as an adult umpire.
7. Understand that your assignments do not count towards any probationary umpires required games.
8. The S.M.U.A. assignor has first option to all Probationary umpires. If needed they may have to turn back a game assigned by the non-S.M.U.A. assignor.
9. All listed assignors must abide by the S.M.U.A.'s Constitution and By-laws
